Ryan Paul Young

is a Physician Assistant who lives and works in New York State. He is the author of the book Climbing Veritas Mountain.

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, he founded, and is currently the voluntary Director of Camp Veritas. The Camp's mission is to inspire and form young Catholic leaders by an intense one-week immersion into the Catholic faith, conducted in the setting of an outdoor camp in the Catskill Mountains. He asks the youth, "Where have I come from, and where am I going in my life?"
